
Who Is Our Audience?

At Plant Green Inertia Pvt.Ltd.(PGI), our experiential training programs are designed to provide to a diverse audience that includes:

Colleges: We partner with higher education institutions to equip students with essential soft and technical skills, enhancing their employability and career readiness.

Schools: We work with schools to introduce foundational life skills and leadership development, preparing young learners for future academic and professional success.

Corporate Firms: We collaborate with businesses to provide customized training solutions that improve employee skills, leadership capabilities, workplace productivity, and overall well-being through stress relief programs. We also partner with corporates for facilitating the recruitment opportunities.

Our flexible training modules are tailored to meet the unique needs of each audience, ensuring impactful and relevant learning experiences for all.